The Curator,
The Museum,
Perth.

Dear Sir,

Enclosed we send you an excerpt from Messrs Buchanan & Stevensons letter to us dated 21st July. We have exchanged several letters with this firm on the subject of the native curios you were good enough to ship to them at our request, and have expressed as plainly as we dare, our opinion of their conduct. Owing to our business connection with them, we are, however, debarred from expressing our views as freely & pointedly as the circumstances warrant. We therefore suggest that you be good enough to send us a letter :- acknowledging receipt of extracts from Messrs Buchanan & Stevensons letters - Reminding us that the weapons etc were supplied to their own order, on the representation that they required them for a charitable purpose, and on the assumption that they were willing to pay for them;—

That, in lieu of payment, you requested them to obtain & ship you an equivalent value in Glasgow repoussé work;—

That the Museum does not traffic in Merchandise;— That the weapons were not shipped "on consignment" for sale to other people;— That the Museum, in supplying them, never contemplated a commercial transaction;—

and any other comments you may think fit to make. We will then forward your letter to Messrs Buchanan & Stevenson.

Yours faithfully,

C. Horrocks & Wadham.
