The General Secretary

Enclosed is a photograph of the specimens referred to by Mr Campbell. As regards the introduction of the object from S. Australia. The informant at Balladonia was an elderly man who had practically not left all his life at the place, he had certainly been there more than ten years. I should imagine the toy first became there 20 or 30 years ago.

It may be possible to obtain further information for Mr Campbell by writing to Balladonia

28/7/16